Specially qualified, in that he has on his own initiative taken six hours dual and one hour solo flying in Montreal while employed with the design staff of Canadian Vickers Ltd.

Of good appearance, well built of an athletic type.

Has a considerable knowledge of aeronautics.

Serious thoughts about his future and would be a hard worker.

Ambitious to become a permanent officer, failing that to follow aeronautical engineering and flying.

Far away the most promising from Mount Allison.

Strongly recommended.

B E F O R E MALCOLM MacLENNAN the undersigned Notary Public for the Province of Quebec, practising in the City of Montreal.

CHARLES CAVOUR FAWCETT, of the City of Montreal,
Lieutenant, Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve,

OF THE FIRST PART :-

A N D MISS ELLA ISABEL GRANT, of the City of Montreal, Spinster of the age of majority.

OF THE SECOND PART :-

WHICH said parties, in view of the intended marriage which is to be solemnized between them, have covenanted and agreed and do hereby covenant and agree with each other as follows, to wit :-

FIRST. There shall be no community of property between them the said future consorts, either of the property movable and immovable which now belongs to them or of that which may be acquired by them during the said intended marriage.

SECOND. The said parties hereto shall be separate as to property as permitted by the Civil Code of Lower Canada; consequently they shall separately and individually have hold and enjoy the property movable and immovable which they now own and which they may respectively acquire during the said intended marriage as their own separate property, the future wife having, during the said marriage, the entire administration of her property movable and immovable and the free enjoyment of her revenues.

THIRD. The said future consorts shall not be responsible for each other's debts contracted previous to or during the present intended marriage, but such debts, if any there be, shall be borne and paid by the one who shall have contracted the same, without the other or his or her property being in any way responsible therefor.

FOURTH. The said future husband shall of himself bear and pay all the household expenses, including all the necessary personal expenses of the said future wife and the maintenance and education of the child or children that may be born of said intended marriage.

FIFTH. In order to establish what shall constitute the property of the said parties, it is declared that the property of the future wife shall consist of her jewels trinkets and paraphernalia, her wedding presents, and all money property and effects now held by her and which she may acquire by purchase, gift, inheritance, legacy or otherwise.

SIXTH. There shall be no dower in favour of said future wife, she hereby renouncing the same.

SEVENTH. In consideration of the foregoing stipulations and of the love and affection which the said future husband hath for the said future wife, he, the said future husband hath settled upon given and granted and doth hereby settle upon give and grant to said future wife, thereof accepting, that is to say :-

(1) All household furniture and household effects that now belong to the future husband; and further, the future husband binds and obliges himself, as the necessity may arise, to pay to the future wife at any time after their marriage the sum of Two thousand five hundred dollars ($2500.00) for the purpose of acquiring household furniture and household effects for the garnishing and ornamentation of the common residence of the future consorts, or in the discretion of the future husband to expend a like sum for such purposes at any time after the marriage; and all the household furniture and household effects which may have been or which may be at any time hereafter acquired by the future husband for the use of the said future consorts or which are or may be in or about their common residence shall be deemed to have been acquired by the said future husband

(for)

W. M. M.
A. P.

for and on behalf of his said future wife and to be her own absolute property but subject to the joint use thereof by the said future consorts during the said marriage and to the condition that in the event of the said future wife dying before the said future husband such of the said household furniture and household effects as she will then own shall revert to the said future husband and thereafter be his absolute property.

W. M. M.
A. P.

(2) The sum of Fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00) which shall be paid to said future wife upon the death of the said future husband, should she survive him; the said donor however reserving the right at any time during the said marriage to pay the whole or any part of said sum of Fifty thousand dollars or to invest the same or any part thereof in the name and for the benefit of his said intended wife in real estate, mortgages on real estate, bank or other stocks or securities; and he also reserves the right during his lifetime to secure the payment of said sum of Fifty thousand dollars by hypothec on immovable property or other securities and from time to time to sell vary and transpose such securities with the consent of his said intended wife; any investments shall however operate as payments only in so far as accepted by her.

SHOULD the future husband during the said marriage become insolvent or bankrupt, the future wife shall thereupon have the right to claim and demand payment of said sum of Fifty thousand dollars or any part thereof then unpaid or unsatisfied.

It is however stipulated that should the said intended wife predecease her said intended husband, the latter shall not be liable to the heirs or legal representatives of his said intended wife for the said sum of Fifty thousand dollars or any part thereof then unpaid or unsatisfied, but such gift or any part thereof then unpaid or unsatisfied shall thereupon lapse and become void.

The said household furniture and household effects and said sum of money have been thus given for the alimentary support of the said intended wife, and the same shall in consequence not be liable to seizure or attachment for any debts she may contract or for any other cause or reason, the said donor hereby expressly exempting the same from seizure.

DONE AND PASSED at the said City of Montreal, on the fourth day of July, nineteen hundred and forty, under the Number Three thousand nine hundred and sixty-four of the original minutes of the undersigned Notary and signed by said parties hereto with and in presence of the said Notary, after due reading hereof.

AIR MAIL

19th February, 1942.

Dear Madam:

It is with deepest regret that I must confirm the telegram of the 18th February from the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services informing you that your husband, Charles Cavour Fawcett, Lieutenant R.C.N.V.R., is missing and must be presumed lost on Active Service.

Your husband was serving in H.M.C.S. "SPIKENARD" which was torpedoed and sunk by enemy action on the 10th February 1942. Details of the action are not, however, available at this time.

The possibility of your husband having been rescued by other ships cannot be estimated but it has been established that he was not among the survivors landed at a United Kingdom port and very little hope is held out for the survival of the remainder. You will be informed immediately should any further information be received.

I wish to express the sincere sympathy of the Chief of the Naval Staff, Officers and men of the Royal Canadian Navy, the high traditions of which your husband has helped to maintain.

Yours sincerely,

AutRai
Secretary, Naval Board.

Mrs. Ella I. Fawcett,
GRANTVILLE, Nova Scotia.
