Dear Sir,

Inclosed find necessary certificates
please return them soon as possible.

I am the mother of the applicant and can assure you he is a very good boy, he has wanted to join the navy ever since he was old enough to know what it meant. His father was all through the war also all his Uncles, one served 21 years in the British Navy.

Unfortunately he did not finish at School you see we live in a very small village the school here only reaches grade 7 so we had to send our boys away which was very expensive. We can only give them two years. I am positive they would both have ~~enrolled~~ at the age of 16 had they had the opportunity.

Dear Sir,-

In connection with the application of Renfred C. Heale for entry into the Royal Canadian Navy as a Boy Seaman, and the Department's request for a testimonial as to character, it is my pleasure to submit one on his behalf.

I have known this young man for eleven years very intimately, and highly recommend him. He comes of good British stock, has been reared in a Christian atmosphere, possesses a fine moral standard, and is a bright intelligent youth.

He has been employed in the mill in various departments since he left school, and his duties have always been cheerfully and capably discharged. He has participated in various branches of sports and always conducted himself in a gentlemanly and sportsmanlike manner. His whole life is an open book and is without blemish.

Physically, mentally and morally he is a splendid type of manhood, and the writer feels he will make his mark in any line of endeavor, particularly in the marine service where his heart has been set on since boyhood.

Trusting the applicant will successfully pass the necessary physical examination and be accepted in the Service, and feeling sure he will justify the high regard in which he is held,

I remain,

Yours truly,

Night. Superintendant.

Sir,

I was asked to send my marriage lines to you some months ago, with something to do with my husband's back pay. I did as I was requested, but received no answer, so I wrote again & still received no answer, to even say you had received them.

Well I am needing those copy of my marriage lines to send somewhere else. Would you kindly return them to me, as I do not feel like parting with my original ones. Thanking you.
