For the purpose of record and in the event of there being any Service estate available for distribution (according to law) on account of the late

EVANS, Llewellyn, A.B. (Deceased)

No. 4397, R.C.N.

ESTATES BRANCH FEB 1 1944 H.Q. OTTAWA NATIONAL DEFENCE

it is necessary that the requisite information regarding the deceased and his relatives should be furnished on the inside of this form in strict accordance with the printed instructions. The particulars required are to be carefully filled in and the Declaration on the back should then be signed in the presence of a Clergyman, Priest, Local Magistrate, Commissioner for Oaths or Notary Public, who should be asked to complete and sign the Certificate. This form should then be returned to the above address.

A deceased's Service estate, the administration of which is the responsibility of the Estates Branch, consists of any balance of pay and allowances at credit, cash on hand and the personal effects which are under the control of the Service authorities. To obtain such assets, it is not necessary for the person(s) legally entitled thereto to obtain through the Courts Probate of the Will, or if none, Letters of Administration of his estate.

In addition to the administration of those Service assets, the Administrator of Estates is authorized to withdraw into Government account any funds (within a defined amount) on deposit to the deceased's credit in Banks, Post Offices or other financial institutions in Canada and Overseas, without expense or trouble to the person(s) legally entitled to the estate, and to distribute such funds at the same time as any balance of pay is distributed. Also, War Savings Certificates and Victory Loan Bonds owned by the deceased may be redeemed and similarly distributed, or transmitted into the name(s) of the person(s) legally entitled. Such Certificates and Bonds should not be forwarded to the Administrator of Estates until they are requested.

If there are other assets which necessitate an application for Probate or Letters of Administration, the Administrator of Estates may transfer and hand over the Service assets to the executor or administrator appointed by the Court so that all the estate, Service and otherwise, may be dealt with as a whole.

The information given by you on Pages 2 and 3 of this form is therefore of importance in determining whether or not the deceased's assets are such that they may all be administered by the Administrator of Estates to the person(s) legally entitled, that is, without the need for Probate or Administration.

If there is insufficient space for complete particulars to be given opposite any question on Pages 2 and 3 of this form, the space under "additional remarks" on page 4 should be used.

Dear Sirs

In answer to yours of Oct 31/45 it seems to me you should have on file the names and addresses of myself and my sons and daughters this is the third time I have sent them to your branch of the naval service. When my son was home on leave July-43 he told me the first he did was to make a will if he did I cannot say. (You know what boys are they are apt to forget) then the St Croix was sunk Sept 20/43. I have been a sick man since and now out of work. Any settlement you make in regards to my sons gratuity will be gratefully appreciated at your earliest convenience.

Dear Mr. Evans:

I wish to thank you for your letter of the 3rd of January, 1944, in reply to my recent inquiry. According to regulations, a Memorial Cross will be issued to the widow or the mother in respect of every sailor who laid down his life for his country during the present war, who is survived by either. If both survive him, two Crosses will be issued, one to each. I regret, however, that there is no provision for the issue of a Cross to any relative except a wife or mother.

Dear Mr. Evans:

I deeply regret that I must confirm the telegram of the 27th of September, 1943, from the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services, informing you that your son, Llewellyn Evans, Able Seaman, Royal Canadian Navy, Official Number 4397, is missing on war service.

According to the report received, your son is listed as missing, due to enemy action, while serving on Convoy duty in the Atlantic. For reasons of security further details of this incident of war cannot be released at this time.

It is requested that you will regard as confidential anything beyond the fact of your son's loss on war service until such time as an official announcement is made, as this information might prove useful to the enemy.

While your son is listed as missing and virtually no hope can be held out for his having survived, Canadian Naval Authorities are unable to make an official presumption of death until a period of not less than three months has elapsed. If further information has not been received at that time, it is probable that official certification of death will then be made and you will be informed accordingly.

Please allow me to express sincere sympathy with you on behalf of the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services, the Chief of the Naval Staff, and the Officers and men of the Royal Canadian Navy, the high traditions of which your son has helped to maintain.

Yours sincerely,

SECRETARY, NAVAL BOARD.

Dear Mr. Evans:

Further to my letter of the 27th of September, 1943, in view of the length of time that has elapsed since your son, Llewellyn Evans, Able Seaman, Official Number 4397, Royal Canadian Navy, was reported "missing" after the sinking of H.M.C.S. "ST.CROIX", and as no information has since been received of his having survived, the Canadian Naval Authorities have now presumed his death to have occurred on the 20th of September, 1943.

May I again express the sincere sympathy of the Department in your bereavement.

Yours sincerely,

28 April, 1944.

Dear Mr. Evans:

Your letter of the 17th of April, 1944, addressed to the Minister of National Defence for Naval Services, has been referred to me for attention.

It is with regret that I must confirm the fact that the Canadian Naval Authorities have presumed your son's death to have occurred on the 20th of September, 1943. Before presumption of death was made, the Naval Authorities, taking into consideration all the factors regarding the mishap, were convinced beyond all reasonable doubt that there was no further possibility of survival.

There is little information to add to the details which have already been forwarded to you and the accounts of this tragedy which were published in the newspapers. After the sinking of H.M.C.S. "St. Croix" by enemy action, the majority of the crew of ten Officers and 138 ratings were lost at sea after the order to "abandon ship" had been given. A few Officers and ratings, however, were picked up by a Royal Navy ship, H.M.S. "Itchen", which was subsequently sunk by enemy action and her entire crew with H.M.C.S. "St. Croix" survivors perished at sea, with the exception of two Royal Navy ratings and one Royal Canadian Naval rating. It is not known, however, whether your son's loss occurred after the sinking of the latter ship.

Yours sincerely,

SECRETARY, NAVAL BOARD.
